10/8-9/2024 – Funding and Grant Writing for Research on Religion and Spirituality | Full Webinar Recording

June 23, 2025

In October, the SSRC hosted an instructional webinar designed to give attendees practical training to find grants from European and North American grantmakers, develop a clear research question, craft a compelling proposal, and navigate the application process. Attended by over 100 scholars, the workshops mark the first phase of our efforts to develop an international cohort of scholars on religion and spirituality.

The full recording of one of the sessions is available below.
